Biography:

Stephanie is a contributing editor for Fine Gardening, past advisory board and contributing editor for Green Profit and PHS's Green Scene, and a regional writer for the Blooms of Bressingham Plant Program. Stephanie also did a monthly show for CNN-TV. Along with receiving four awards from the Perennial Plant Association for design and the Service and Academic Awards, she also has awards from Temple University, Pennsylvania Horticulture Society, and the American Nursery and Landscape Association as Garden Communicator of the Year 2000. Having lectured coast to coast, including Alaska, Stephanie appeared on QVC-TV as the "Perennial Diva." For over 20 years she taught at Temple University, Ambler, is the founding director of the arboretum, and received the most distinguished award given to an alumna -- Alumni Fellow. Her first book, The Perennial Gardener's Design Primer was selected as the best-selling book for 2005 by the Garden Writers of America and her second book Fallscaping is in stores today. Her book The Non-Stop Garden has been a top-seller since 2011.
